Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel, we see a man challenge Jesus—trying to make things harder than they are—by asking him how to inherit eternal life. This guy knows the answer already and Jesus says, you tell me. The man says that we should love God with all that we have and love our neighbor as ourselves. That is the right answer. But, he wants Jesus to tell him exactly who his neighbor is. He was probably expecting Jesus to say that the people you already love are your neighbor, but that's not what he said. The story of the Good Samaritan tells the man, and tells us, that even our enemies are our neighbors and that we must treat everyone with kindness and mercy. teachingcatholickids.com

July 14th is the Memorial of St. Kateri Tekawitha. A Native American woman and descendant of the Mohawk and Algonquin tribes of Central New York. Mohawk, Choctaw, Algonquin, Navajo, Ojibwa, and other tribes refer to her as "Princess of the Eucharist" because of her deep devotion to the Eucharist.

Bible Study as a Family - A Few Tips

Want to do a little Bible study with your kids this summer? Here are some tips:

During Ordinary Time, the Church pairs the Old Testament and New Testament readings in a way that each sheds light on the other. Ask your kids to look for the common theme connecting the two readings. (Sometimes it's obvious, sometimes it is subtle.) How does the "dialogue" between the readings help you understand them better?

Get a New American Bible, Revised Edition, and take a look at the footnotes for these readings. How do they change your understanding of what is going on?

Take a look at the context for the readings—what happens before, or after?

Read the NABRE's introduction to the book of the Bible that the readings are taken from. How does that help you understand the readings?

If you don't have a copy of the NABRE at home, you can view it online at the USCCB website
