

THE BOOK OF JOB

After reviewing the Book of Job, use the clues to unscramble the words below each clue. When you are finished, write down the letters in the boxes after each clue and unscramble those to fill in the boxes at the bottom of the page.

1. In the opening chapter of Job, ___ presents himself to God and suggests that Job is good because the Lord has given Job so much.

TANSA _ _ _ _

2. In Job 1:13–22, Job loses ___ that he has.

VYIRETGNHE _ _ _ _ _ _

3. In Job 2:1–10, Job’s health is taken away and his wife tells him to, “___ and die,” but he refuses to do so.

SUCRE DGO _ _ _ _ _

4. Job never loses his ___ in God. (See the “Live It!” article near Job 1:13–21.)

HIATF _ _ _

5. In chapter 2, three of Job’s friends visit Job to ___ him.

TOCOFMR _ _ _ _

6. In chapters 3 through 37, Job and his friends have a long ___ about why Job is suffering.

EEBDTA _ _ _ _

7. In the time of Job, people thought that if a person were poor or suffering God was ___ them for sin. (See the introduction to the Book of Job.)

SUPIGHNIN _ _ _ _ _ _

8. In Job 27:1–6, Job makes an oath of ___. (See the “Did You Know?” article near chapter 24.)

CENNIECON _ _ _ _ _ _ _

9. In chapter 38, the Lord appears and questions Job. The point the author is trying to make is that God is a mystery, ___ and awesome beyond our control and imagination. (See the “Pray It!” article for chapters 38–41.)

LUWOPFER _ _ _ _

The theme of the Book of Job is . . .

?